Feel the joy in new sunglasses for 2023

Esprit goes hand in hand with care-free confidence, a positive mindset and a sense of style that is at once timeless and relaxed. Esprit fashion means looking good by feeling good in high-quality clothing and accessories that are comfortable, turn all heads and are sustainably made.

Taking its lead from on-trend color and style directions, Esprit channels its upbeat attitude into lightweight acetate, metal, and mixed material rimless and full-rimmed sunglasses. Frames are presented in modern shapes, including cat-eye, geometric or rounded forms, with thin lines or as denser, bolder expressions. Fresh details, like decorative end pieces, layers and color contrasts, give these fashion-forward shades a one-off touch.
