ESPRIT KIDS EYEWEAR PRESS RELEASE JUNE 2021

Jump, skip and feel free with Esprit kids' eyewear. Always chic, colorful and comfortable, Esprit spells high-quality fashion frames that kids love and parents trust when it comes to protecting their children's eyes. Two unisex styles enhance this young collection. On-trend and attractive, there'll be no argument when it comes to wearing these bright new looks.

First off, they're cute and contemporary, so they're totally fun to wear. Featuring joyful color contrasts, this rectangular style comes in black, brown and blue and has sporty temple stripes that match the end tip tones (ET33445). This softer, rounded frame perfectly captures the positive mood in fresh purple, red and grey with dynamically colored temple stripes and end tips (ET33446).

As with all Esprit children's frames, these upbeat looks are specially designed to meet the demands of lively, action-packed days. In this eyewear, Ultem material is used, which is light, provides excellent frame flexibility and durability - essential factors when it comes to kids' frolics. Last but not now least, as well as feeling light, these cool Esprit frames are truly comfortable and sit snugly on girls' and boys' noses. That's the perfect recipe for all-day play.
