PRESS RELEASE

Autumn/Winter 2021

Classic, dynamic, beloved, ELLE is the brand with Parisian chic as its cornerstone. With fashion and womanhood firmly entrenched in its DNA, it reaches out across the world, making style accessible and welcoming originality. Thanks to the ELLE eyewear collection, women can quickly embrace this French force in frames that are contemporary and elegant.

For the autumn winter season, new ELLE frames are led by both romantic and geometric influences. Interwoven braids inspire ornamental end pieces and temples on selected styles. Check out attractive and elegant twists. Metal elements with geometric detailing or colour accents will draw all eyes. These exciting accessories will keep fall wardrobes looking fresh in rich pinks and reds, autumn greens and winter pastels.

EL13498 This ELLE frame is light and comfortable and made of TR90. The shallow rectangular profile with slightly catty touch is enticing and modern. In beautiful pastel transparent tones or classic black, a graphic metal detail with hand-painted Neo 2 on endpieces is a distinctive point of difference.
